

THE OCCUPATION AND LIBERATION OF GUERNSEY

WORLD WAR II

The story in pictures taken from the
Photographic Archive of Guernsey
Museum & Art Gallery.

The Guernsey Museum Service holds an extensive archive of photographs which date back to the late 19th Century. The collection covers numerous topics including the Royal Guernsey Militia and Light Infantry, maritime history, agriculture, industry, transport, social history and the German Occupation during WWII.

Guernsey Museum & Art Gallery is delighted to be able to show a selection of key photographs from its German Occupation archive as part of the Guernsey Photography Festival during May 2010.

Visitors are invited to sit in the church pews and watch the slide-show which lasts for approximately 15 minutes. The show is FREE OF CHARGE.

The Guernsey Museum Service would like to thank the Holy Trinity Church for kindly agreeing to provide this venue in which to screen these images.

We hope you enjoy the show

Show Times: 9am – 2pm

Tuesday - Friday / 3rd - 29th May 2010

